Introduction

We would like to thank you for the confidence you have placed in Jaeger-LeCoultre. Our Maison has applied all its expertise and passion to the creation of this model.
We invite you to consult the operating instructions and hope your Jaeger-LeCoultre timepiece brings you great joy.

Accuracy and precautions for use

MANUALLY WOUND OR AUTOMATIC MECHANICAL WATCHES

The accuracy of watch models with mechanical movements is determined by the balance wheel. This oscillates at a rate of 28,800 vibrations per hour. Despite all the care that the master watchmakers of the Jaeger-LeCoultre Manufacture have lavished on building and assembling your watch, its accuracy is subject to the influence of gravity, magnetic fields, accidental impacts, and the ageing of oils. The accuracy of a watch is measured by its regularity of rate in various positions.

Your individual activities could be the cause of slight irregularities in the working of your timepiece. If you observe a discrepancy in the way your watch runs, we advise you to entrust it to an authorised Jaeger-LeCoultre retailer who will make the necessary adjustments. Watches with mechanical movements must not be used for sports involving significant risk of impact or abrupt actions, such as golf or tennis.

Water resistance

Your Jaeger-LeCoultre watch is water resistant up to 5 bar. Its water resistance can be identified by the  symbol engraved on the case-back. This means that your model has been tested at an overpressure of 5 bar, corresponding to an immersion pressure of 50 metres (1 bar = ±10 metres).

In accordance with the ISO 22810/NIHS 92-20 standard, in order to guarantee the durability of the watch's characteristics over time, and as water resistance may be affected by certain activities, it is recommended that the user:

- have the watch's water resistance checked by an authorised Jaeger-LeCoultre retailer at least once every two years. It is essential to have such a check carried out each time your watch is opened, and before any period during which it is liable to undergo prolonged and/or regular immersions.
- check when making the purchase that the bracelet is suitable for the intended use.
- avoid subjecting the watch to excessively abrupt temperature changes.
- protect the watch from being dropped or from suffering other accidental impacts, and have the water resistance checked after any violent impact.
- avoid the use of the controls, push-piece, or time-setting crown while under water, or outside the water, if the watch is not yet dry after immersion.
- restore the time-setting crown and the push-piece to their normal positions, or where applicable, close the compression keys after every manipulation.

- rinse the watch with fresh water after use in sea water.

You may use your watch during short swims and when jumping in from the edge of a swimming pool, but not from a diving board. It must not be used for scuba diving or for sports involving significant risk of impact, such as windsurfing or waterskiing. Also, note that leather straps are not suited for aquatic activities.

"1000 Hours Control" test

Jaeger-LeCoultre submits all its watches to its stringent "1000 Hours Control", a battery of comprehensive and rigorous internal tests lasting a full 1000 hours.
The "1000 Hours Control" seal or legend placed or engraved on the back of your watch certifies that the timepiece has successfully passed all the tests relating to regularity of rate, temperature, atmospheric pressure, and resistance to shocks and magnetic fields, as well as water-resistance trials. Thus, your watch is capable of withstanding the daily stresses and strains that await it. The criteria of the "1000 Hours Control" programme considerably exceed the standards of official timing tests, which deal only with part of the movement. Jaeger-LeCoultre tests not only the movement prior to being cased up in the watch, but also the watch once it has been assembled.

Technical specifications

- Self-winding mechanical movement, Jaeger-LeCoultre Calibre 995.
- 28,800 vibrations/hour
- Power reserve: 45 hours.

Movement

The tourbillon is a mechanical device consisting of a carriage containing the watch's regulating system and performing one complete revolution per minute. It is designed to improve the accuracy of mechanical watches by offsetting disruption of the balance wheel isochronism by the earth's gravity. This watch is equipped with a flying tourbillon with a cylindrical balance-spring, which guarantees an exceptional level of timekeeping performance.

Use

WINDING

Crown in position 1.

A few clockwise turns of the crown are enough to set the watch running. It will then automatically wind up when you wear it. Please note that the crown does not lock when winding, even when the watch is fully wound.

SETTING THE HOURS AND MINUTES

Pull the crown out to position 2.

Move the hands clockwise until the desired time is displayed. On the hour signal, push the crown back in to position 1. The watch starts running again.
